Town Hall Notes

Perception of Leadership and Priorities

- Leadership is seen as focusing on trivial matters (e.g., cards, snacks) rather than addressing substantial concerns.

Trust and Collective Power

- Staff believe collective action, like bargaining, could help address systemic issues.
- -making across departments.
- Instances of collaboration, such as working with faculty to protect vulnerable groups, show potential for positive outcomes when trust is present.

Calls for Specific Actions

- Revisit endowment spending to address immediate challenges.
- Provide better training and support for mid-level leaders tasked with making difficult decisions.
- Address broken relationships with Indigenous groups as part of broader accountability and budgetary reflexivity.
